APPENDIX

The pertinent sections of the District of Columbia Code, 1940 Edition, are as follows:

§ 11–703. Jurisdiction — Limited — Exclusive in certain actions.—The municipal court of the District of Columbia shall have exclusive jurisdiction in the following civil cases in which the claimed value of personal property or the debt or damages claimed, exclusive of interest and costs, does not exceed $1,000, namely, in all civil cases in which the amount claimed to be due for debt or damages arises out of contracts, express or implied * * *.

* * * * *

§ 11–724. Judgments and executions—Interest.—* * * The municipal court is authorized to issue writs of execution in all cases in which it is authorized to render judgment.

* * * * *

§ 15–209. Judgment of municipal court—As a lien—Not levied on real property.—An execution issued on a judgment of the municipal court shall not be a lien on the personal property of the judgment defendant except from the time when it is actually levied, and then it shall have priority over any execution issued out of said District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia after said levy. It shall not be levied on real estate.

* * * * *

§ 15–210. On what fieri facias may be levied.—The writ of fieri facias may be levied on all goods and chattels of the debtor not exempt as aforesaid * * *.

* * * * *

§ 15–212. Levy on equitable interest in chattels pledged.—The interest of the debtor in personal chattels lawfully pledged for the payment of a debt or performance of a contract, or held by a trustee and in which the debtor's interest is only equitable, may be levied upon in the hands of the pledgee or trustee without disturbing the possession of the latter, and the lien thus obtained may be enforced by proceedings in equity. In other cases of equitable interest of the judgment debtor in personal chattels execution may also be levied thereon and the lien thus obtained may be enforced by proceedings in equity. * * *

§ 25–103. Definitions. * * * (n) The word "restaurant" means a suitable space in a suitable building, approved by the board, including such suitable space outside of the building and adjoining it as may be approved by the board, kept, used, maintained, advertised, or held out to the public to be a place where meals are served, such space being provided with such adequate kitchen and dining-room equipment and capacity, and having employed therein such number and kinds of employees for preparing, cooking, and serving meals for its guests as shall satisfy the board that such space is intended for use primarily as a place for preparing, cooking, and serving meals, and that the chief source of revenue to be derived from the operation of such place shall be from the preparation, cooking, and serving of meals and not from the sale of beverages. No such space shall be considered suitable if any business is conducted therein other than the preparation, cooking, and serving of meals, except such a business as is incidental to a bona fide restaurant.

* * * * *

§ 25–106. Jurisdiction of board over licenses—Appeal from revocation—Duties.—The right, power, and jurisdiction to issue, transfer, revoke, and suspend all licenses under this chapter shall be vested solely in the board, and the action of the Board on any question of fact shall be final and conclusive * * *.

§ 25–107. Powers of Commissioners—Rules and regulations—Licenses. * * *

The Commissioners shall have specific authority to make rules and regulations for the issuance, transfer, and revocation of licenses * * *.

* * * * *

§ 25–111. License classifications—Fees. * * * (h) Retailer's license, class D.—Such a license shall be issued only for a bona fide restaurant, tavern, hotel, or club, or a passenger-carrying marine vessel serving meals, light lunches, or sandwiches, or a club car or a dining car on a railroad. Such a license shall authorize the holder thereof to sell beer and light wines at the place therein described for consumption only in said place. * * *

The annual fee for such a license shall be $200 * * *.

* * * * *

§ 25–117. Transfer of license—Fee—Conditions imposed.—No license shall be transferred by the licensee to any other person or to any other place, except with the written consent of the Board, upon a > regular application therefor in writing and after notice and hearing, as herein provided for an original application for license, and the fee to be paid by the party applying for such transfer shall be twenty-five dollars, which shall be paid to the Collector of Taxes for the District of Columbia before such transfer is made: Provided, That the Board shall not allow the transfer of the license of any person against whom there is pending in the courts or before the Board any charge of keeping a disorderly house, or of violating this law or the laws against gambling in the District of Columbia.

Section 8a of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Regulations provides:

> Every person receiving a license to manufacture or sell beverages shall frame the same under glass and post it conspicuously in his place of business.
